Dear Community Friend,

For 15 years, Artists Unlimited, Inc. has delighted guests with exceptional performances of beloved stage musicals by extremely talented and unique actors. Our previous productions have included such musicals as Mary Poppins, Seussical, Peter Pan, Annie, and Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat.

For our 2016 production, Artists Unlimited invites the community to be our guest at performances of Disney's Beauty and the Beast at Kodak Center for Performing Arts on November 4-6 and 10-12.

Artists Unlimited is a local, charitable organization that brings the magic of musical theater to children and adults with special needs. Our sole mission is to offer a unique, expressive experience, in a safe haven, to talented individuals who might not otherwise have an opportunity to showcase their talents. Our performers show what they can do, instead of being defined by what they can't do. It's truly a life-changing experience for all who are a part of what comes to life onstage at every performance.

Artists Unlimited is funded primarily by generous donations from the community. Please see the attached information for details on this year's sponsorship and advertising options. We are a nonprofit, 501(c) 3 organization and donations are tax-deductible.
